

FALL 2008 SCHEDULE

50:120:105 Facts of Life (3)

INTERNET

Evans

Course Description:

Introduction (without laboratory) to biological principles. Covers basic concepts involved in understanding the structure, function, and evolution of organisms with an emphasis placed on the application of biological knowledge to problems of man and society. Topics include human nutrition, disease, reproduction and development, genetic engineering, pollution, and conservation.

For All Majors, this course counts as a Natural Science General Requirement 7. Or a Free Elective

50:202:352 Community Corrections (3)

TH 6:00 PM-8:40 PM

Epstein

Course Description:

Historical and philosophical overview of the theories behind alternatives to incarceration and their implementation in corrections. Emphasis on their impact and future.

- . For All Majors, this course counts as a Social Science General Education Requirement 5. Or a Free Elective.
- . For Criminal Justice majors, this course counts as a major elective.
- 0. For Liberal Studies majors, this course counts as an upper-level Social Science.

50:512:305 The Age of the American Revolution (3)

W 6:00 PM-8:40 PM

Seitter

Course Description:

The American Revolution, with independence from England producing sharp changes in society, economy, and politics, and resulting in the establishment of a unique republican system.

- . For All Majors, this course counts as a General Education Requirements 3b. Or a Free Elective.
- 0. For Liberal Studies majors, this will count as an upper-level Humanities.

50:606:301 Mastering the Liberal Arts I (3)

M 6:00 PM-8:40 PM

TBD

Course Description:

A range of topics and methods used to challenge students to further develop the array of advanced skills needed to master the material taught in upper-division liberal studies courses. Emphasizes the reading and writing skills needed in advanced humanities courses. Regular writing and research assignments.

- . For All Majors, this course counts as a General Education Requirements 1c. Or a Free Elective.
- 0. For Liberal Studies majors, this is a major requirement.

50:160:201 Environmental Chemistry (3)

TBD 6:00 PM-8:40 PM

Gambs

Course Description:

Natural and human-made chemical compositions and chemical changes of the hydrosphere, the lithosphere, and the atmosphere and how they lead to the preservation and enhancement of life on earth. Prerequisite: 50:160:116 or permission of instructor.

- 0. For All Majors, this course counts as a Natural Science General Requirement 7. Or a Free Elective.
- 0. For General Science majors, this counts as a Chemistry major elective or one of the courses outside the area for students who have not selected Chemistry as the area of concentration.
- 0.

50:790:342 Principles of Public Administration (3)
M 6:00 PM-8:40 PM

Blagojevic

Course Description:

The structure and organization of administrative machinery in the United States. The theory and politics of contemporary bureaucracy with emphasis on administrative forces, decision making, enforcement, administrative courts, responsiveness, and innovations.

- . For All Majors, this course counts as a Social Science General Education Requirement 5. Or a Free Elective.
- 0. For Political Science majors, this course counts as a major elective.
- 0. For Liberal Studies majors, this course counts as an upper-level Social Science.

50:830:XXX Positive Psychology (3)
T 6:15 PM-8:55 PM Course Description: TBD
Piekarski

- . For All Majors, this course counts as a Social Science General Education Requirement 5. Or a Free Elective.
- 0. For Psychology majors, this course counts as a major elective.
- . For Liberal Studies majors, this course counts as an upper-level Social Science.

37:575:364 Sec:90 Index# 13384 Diversity in the Workplace (3)
INTERNET COURSE
Marsden

Course Description:

Focuses on how the increasing demographic diversity of American workplaces affects social relations, cultural dynamics, and organizational effectiveness.

- . For All Majors, this course General Education Requirement #5 or 6. Or a Free Elective.
- 0. For Liberal Studies majors, this course counts as an Upper-Level Social Science.

11:015:380 Sec:80 Index# 10954 Leadership Communication (3)
INTERNET COURSE
Nikola/Kinsey

Course Description:

An online course in the application of critical thinking skills to the evaluation of leadership and communication. Establishment of personal and professional goals. Evaluation of effective leadership communication, group dynamics and strategies, and organizational culture.

- . For All Majors, this course is Free Elective only

11:373:241 Sec:90 Index# 10023 Introduction to Management (3)
INTERNET COURSE
Jaffe/Peacock

Course Description:

General application of basic concepts, functions, and tools of management that contribute to success and improve individual performances in decision making and other situations and problems in the field of management. Prerequisite: Microeconomics

- . For All Majors, this course is a Free Elective only.

07:700:101 Sec:91 Index# 12573 Introduction to Music (3)
INTERNET COURSE
TBD

Course Description:

For students with little or no background in music. Basic concepts for intelligent listening to all kinds of music. Emphasis on aspects of sonority, rhythm, melody, harmony, and structure.

0. For All Majors, this course completes Gen Ed Requirement 4a. It may also be used as a Free Elective.

Hybrid internet courses offer a combination of in-class and Internet instruction. Classes will meet once a month on Saturday. The rest of the instruction will be offered online. There will be regular weekly assignments and quizzes, and occasional chat sessions that will be held on Saturdays at the same hour or at other mutually convenient times. To be successful with this mode of delivery, students must be self-directed learners who are goal oriented and self disciplined.

Two hybrid Internet classes will be offered by Professor Ted Goertzel in the Fall semester of 2008.

50:920:301 Methods and Techniques of Social Research (3)

INTERNET

COURSE

Goertzel

Meets 9:00 to 11:30 on September 6, October 4, November 1 and December 14.

- For All Majors, this course General Education Requirement #5. Or a Free Elective.
- For Criminal Justice majors, this is a Major Requirement.
- For Liberal Studies majors, this course counts as an Upper-Level Social Science.

50:920:425 Cyberspace and Society (3)

INTENRET

COURSE

Goertzel

Meets 1:00 to 3:30 on September 6, October 4, November 1 and December 14.

- For All Majors, this course General Education Requirement #5. Or a Free Elective.
- For Liberal Studies majors, this course counts as an Upper-Level Social Science.